Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Your letter and the papers came. I find them interesting and wish to ask if you have done any research where the records would be in England and about how expensive it runs? Say to learn about Alexanders parents, what is your advise?

Now let me hasten to add that because of my remark of comparison between the Tremere and Booth families, please do not picture me as a glory seeker. Far be it. The thought of finding that proverbial 'horse thief' that stops so many people from delving into their past, has only quickened my spirit to press on. I am delighted to accept Alexander as a sailor and Thomas as blacksmith.

Now that we know a little more about the Tremeres, will you refer to your letter of June 27, 1966. When time permits, kindly see what more can be learned of John and Elizabeth (Bristol) Booth. As you stated, he must have been a land owner and some administration of his affairs must have been made at the time of his death. You know best what to look for and where,

Please do not forget to answer question in first paragraph.

A $25. money order is enclosed toward expense on request for Booth information.

Very sincerely,

Wm. Clinton Maitland
